The Plaintiff, complaining of the Defendant above-named, hereby alleges and pleads as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action is brought pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2671 et seq. Jurisdiction is founded on 29 U.S.C. §§1346(b).
2. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1391, venue is proper in the Charleston Division of the District of South Carolina as a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred there.
3. This suit arises from a motor vehicle collision that occurred on Redbank Road in Charleston County, South Carolina, on December 17, 2022.
4. Plaintiff previously submitted a claim based on the allegations herein to the United States Postal Service for administrative settlement. The United States Postal Service made an offer that was rejected on the claim and six months have passed since rejection. Accordingly, Plaintiff has complied with the requirements of the Federal Tort Claims Act for the timely filing of claims and hereby institutes the present lawsuit.

PARTIES

5. The Plaintiff, Mahogane Blakk, is a resident of the County of Charleston, South Carolina.
6. The United States Postal Service is, and was at all times relevant herein, a governmental agency of Defendant United States of America. Pursuant to the requirements of the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2671 et seq., Defendant United States of America is the properly named defendant in this lawsuit.
7. Defendant Campbell is a resident of the County of Charleston, South Carolina.

FACTUAL FOUNDATION FOR THIS ACTION

8. On or about December 17, 2022, Mahogane Blakk was traveling in her vehicle north on Redbank Road and properly slowed to stop for upcoming traffic.
9. At the time and place above, Keniya Fair was driving a vehicle for the United States Postal Service.
10. While Plaintiff was slowing to stop for traffic, Keniya Fair drove the United States Postal Service vehicle into the back of Plaintiff's vehicle.
11. Defendant Campbell's vehicle then struck the rear for the United States Postal Service vehicle driven by Keniya Fair resulting in a subsequent impact to the Plaintiff.
12. At the time of the collision on December 17, 2022, Keniya Fair was acting as an agent or employee of the U.S. Postal Service (hereinafter Defendant's driver).
13. At the time of the collision with Plaintiff's vehicle on December 17, 2022,

Defendant's driver was driving too fast for conditions.

14. At the time of the collision with Plaintiff's vehicle on December 17, 2022, Defendant's driver failed to keep a proper lookout.
15. At the time of the collision with Plaintiff's vehicle on December 17, 2022, Defendant's driver was following too closely to Plaintiff's vehicle.
16. Defendant's driver was at fault for causing the collision with Plaintiff's vehicle.
17. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's actions and omissions, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages.
18. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's actions and omissions and the automobile collision of December 17, 2022, Plaintiff has sustained property damages, pain, suffering, discomfort, actual damages, medical expenses, impairment of health and bodily efficiency, emotional distress, and mental anguish.
19. Plaintiff has been compelled to expend, and may in the future be compelled to expend, significant sums of monies for medical treatments and for the services of medical providers as a direct result of injuries sustained in this collision.
20. At all times relevant, Defendant's driver was an agent or employee of the United States Postal Service, an agency of Defendant United States of America, and acting within the course and scope of her agency and employment of the U.S. Postal Service, and under the direction and control of the U.S. Postal Service at the time of the subject collision.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION – NEGLIGENCE AS TO BOTH DEFENDANTS

21. Plaintiff incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth, each and every allegation in the preceding paragraphs.
22. Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiff to operate the U.S. Postal Service and private vehicles safely, with reasonable care, and in accordance with all laws concerning the operation of a motor vehicle.
23. Defendants driver were negligent, willful, wanton, and reckless and breached the duties they owed to Plaintiff in one or more of the following ways:
 - a. In operating the U.S. Postal Service and private vehicles in a negligent and/or reckless manner;
 - b. In driving too fast for the conditions;
 - c. In following the Plaintiff's vehicle too closely;
 - d. In failing to keep a proper lookout;
 - e. In failing to keep the U.S. Postal Service and private vehicles under proper control;
 - f. Failing to properly and timely apply the brakes on the vehicle;
 - g. Failing to use the degree of care and caution that a reasonably prudent driver would have used under the circumstances then and there prevailing;
 - h. In failing to maintain a safe distance of travel between Defendants' vehicles and Plaintiff's vehicle;
 - i. In failing to take evasive action to avoid the collision;
 - j. Otherwise operating a vehicle without exercising reasonable care and in a negligent, willful, wanton, and reckless manner; and

- k. Violating various statutes, U.S. Postal Service requirements, policies, and ordinances designed to protect the public, including Plaintiff, from the type of harm that was caused by the Defendants' conduct related to the subject collision;
- 24. Defendants' careless, negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, and unlawful acts were a direct and proximate cause of the collision and the resulting injuries and damages to Plaintiff, including property damages, physical injury, harm, past and future medical expenses, past and future physical and mental pain and suffering, emotional and psychological damage, and loss of enjoyment of life.
- 25. Plaintiff seeks actual damages under this cause of action.
- 26. Defendant U.S. Postal Service is vicariously liable for the acts and/or omissions, negligence, and recklessness of Defendant's driver under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION – NEGLIGENCE PER SE

- 27. Plaintiff incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth, each and every allegation in the preceding paragraphs.
- 28. Defendants had a duty to operate their vehicles in compliance with state and federal laws, rules, regulations, and guidelines designed to protect the health and safety of all persons traveling on the roadway.
- 29. Defendants failed to comply with state laws, rules, regulations, and guidelines designed to protect the health and safety of all persons traveling on the roadway.
- 30. Defendants were negligent per se in violating the following statutes and/or regulations:

- a. S.C. Code § 56-5-730 which relates to required obedience to traffic laws;
 - b. S.C. Code § 56-5-1930 which relates to following too closely;
 - c. S.C. Code § 56-5-1520(A) which relates to driving a speed that is reasonable and prudent under the conditions and so as to avoid colliding with another vehicle;
 - d. any other statutes or regulations which were violated as ascertained during the course of discovery.
31. These laws prescribe certain actions and define certain standards of conduct. Plaintiff is in the class of persons sought to be protected by these laws. Plaintiff's injuries and damages represent the type of harm the regulations were intended to prevent. To the extent Defendants' conduct violated this regulation, such conduct constitutes negligence per se.
32. Defendants' negligence per se was a direct and proximate cause of the collision and the resulting injuries and damages to Plaintiff, including property damages, physical injury, harm, past and future medical expenses, past and future physical and mental pain and suffering, emotional and psychological damage, and loss of enjoyment of life.
33. Plaintiff seeks actual damages under this cause of action.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants for actual damages, including damages for physical injury and harm, property damages, past and future medical expenses, past and future physician and mental pain and suffering, emotional and psychological damage, loss of enjoyment of life, the costs of this action, punitive damages as to Defendant Campbell only, and for any additional relief this Court deems just and proper.
